Our History

As eighty-three wide-eyed freshmen, we entered Roosevelt in September 1953. Our class, one of the largest in Roosevelt history, was destined to make an outstanding record, for it included many who proved to be leaders in scholastics, athletics, student government, and extra curricular activities. The first wonderful year was filled with many new experiences, such as that first big dance, the Jupiter Jump.

We were informally initiated at the annual Sophomore Reception in the fall of 1954. The following December we sponsored the Crystal Ball. During the spring of 1955, we campaigned enthusiastically for our candidates in the Student Council election. We were thrilled when the votes were tabulated, pronouncing John Erikson as vice-president and Mary Jane Nissly as secretary.

In the fall of 1955, members of our class proudly exhibited their new class rings. Ideas were collected for torturing members of the class of '58 at the Sophomore Reception. Most of our class participated in the school's dramatic activities, and we sponsored three one-act plays. At the Student Council election, our class was 100 percent successful with John Erikson as president, Frank Stiltner as vice-president, and Mary Jane Nissly as secretary. The athletic members of our class helped carry the RHS basketball team to the State quarter finals. We sponsored the Senior Farewell for the class of '56.

The senior year brought much activity and little spare time for we were busy with school organizations, the punishment of trespassers on the senior stairs, yearbook, pictures, dances, fun nights, athletics, and plans for the Big Trip to New York. The last year of high school whizzed by so fast that before we realized it, we were dressed in caps and gowns and marching into graduation with mixed sentiments, for the school that had played such a big part in our lives was yesterday. The beckoning future lay ahead of us.

Our senior year proved to be a busy one.

The eighth graders find themselves midway in their high school career.

They studied diligently and attentively and even, as extra work, studied the RHS manual.

Aside from their academic pursuits, they sponsored and attended fun-nights and hosted their annual Christmas party. Some of the boys participated in intramural sports and they all enthusiastically supported the varsity and reserve teams of Roosevelt.

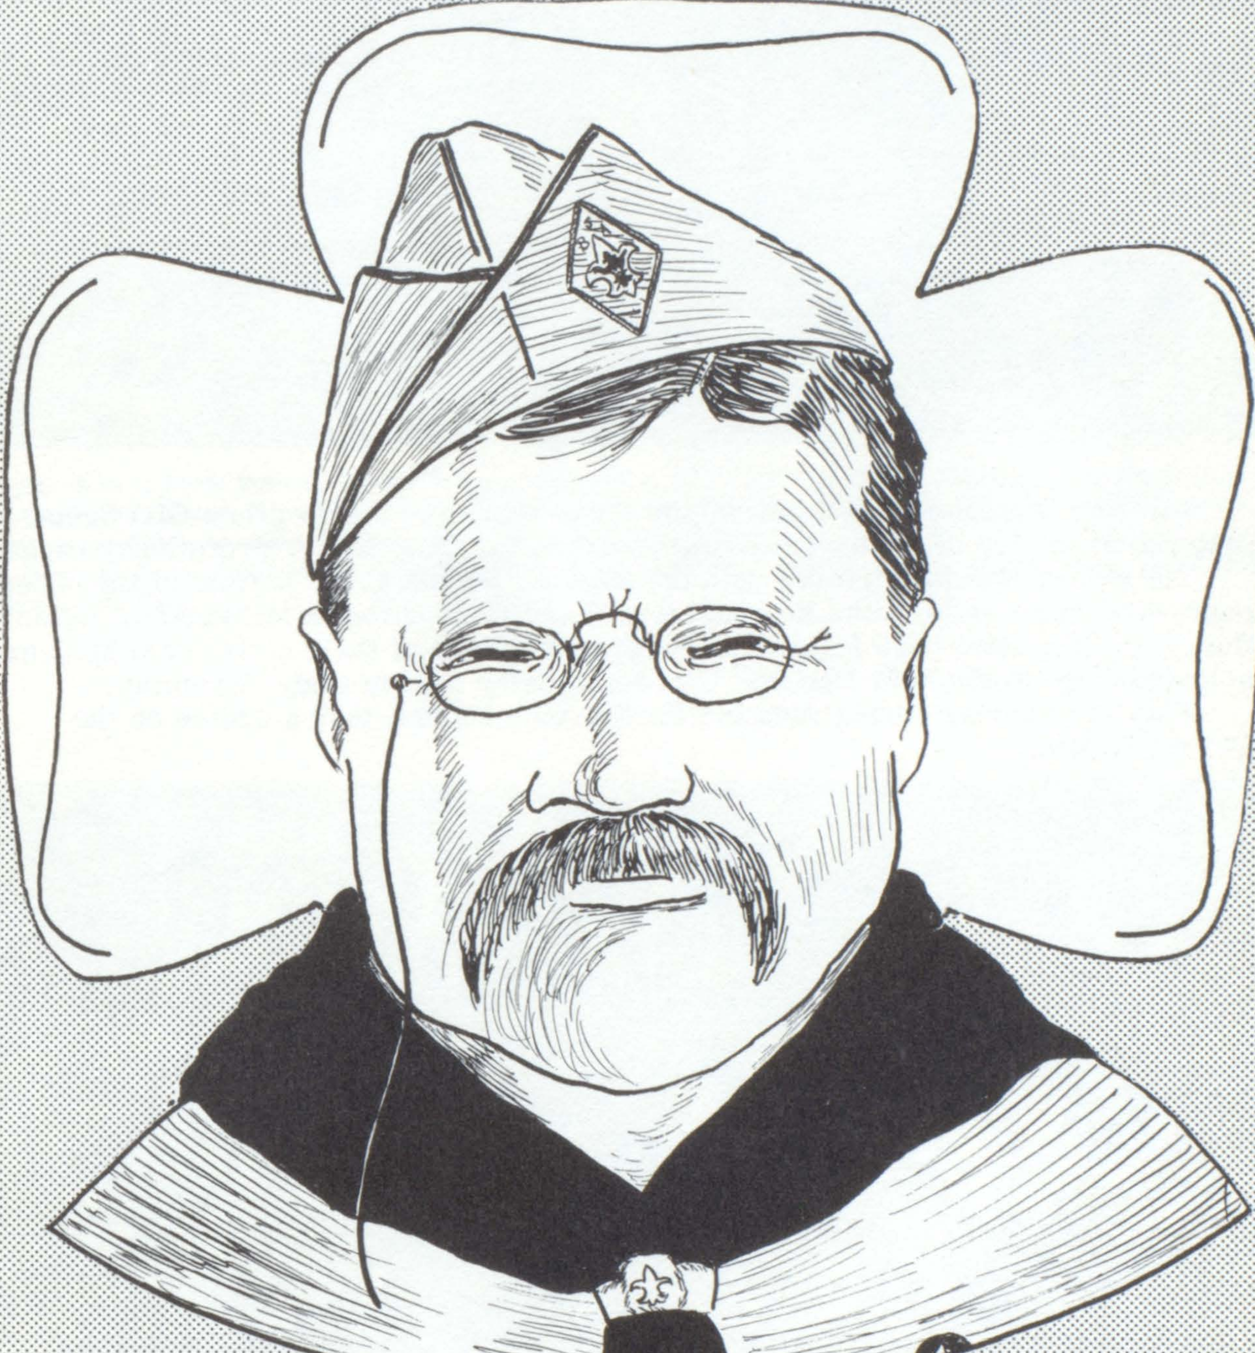
ACTIVITIES



Roosevelt Scouts follow

Miss Mildred Crawford

In memory of Miss Mildred Crawford, the Girl Scouts of Ypsilanti have set up a camp site named Camp Crawford. This is a tribute not only to the fine person Miss Crawford was, but also to all of the help she gave to Roosevelt and Ypsilanti Scouts.

The Senior Scouts, pictured with the Mariner Scouts at the bottom of the opposite page, sent three girls to the Regional Girl Scout Convention in Milwaukee. Again this year, they have been fortunate enough to have one of their girls, Pam McClure, selected to go to the 1957 National Girl Scout camp held in Cody, Wyoming.

This year during spring vacation the Mariner Scouts, took a cruise on the Detroit River.

Under the intelligent and efficient leadership of John Erikson, the 1957 Roosevelt Student Council has carried on the tradition that the previous twenty-seven councils have outlined. The council-sponsored magazine sale grossed $4,000. From the proceeds came a camera for the publication staffs, ping-pong tables, and much-needed mirrors for the girls' lavatory. Council representatives attended the Huron League Student Council conferences at Chelsea.

A typical J. A. company.

Each year students interested in learning how to run the various phases of a business join Junior Achievement. All companies receive charters at an open house held during Junior Achievement Week. Some of the products these companies made this year were Christmas tree holders, ashtrays, pizza pie tins, planters, and picture frames. Junior Achievement sponsors the annual Junior Achievement Dance. This year, JAMCO met in Cleveland, Ohio.

Staff hard at work

The yearbook staff, under the direction of co-editors Mary Jane Nissly and Joyce Brooks and their advisor, Miss Thelma McAndless, has sought in this 1957 Echoes to give an over-all view of the Roosevelt School program.

The staff thumbed the pages of past annuals, and selected as a theme Theodore Roosevelt. Displayed throughout the book is the bust of Teddy presented to our school by the class of 1929.

Students publish own newspaper

Alan Stewart, editor-in-chief, assisted by juniors Betty Brown, Linda Isbell, and Karen Erickson, has guided the Rough Rider through its 31st year of continuous publication. The paper takes its share of honors in scholastic journalism under the direction of Miss Thelma McAndless, editorial advisor and Robert Bendon, printing.

Strike or gutter ball?

For the last two years, Mary Harris, under the guidance of Mrs. Florence Crouch, has headed the Girls' Athletic Association. During the second semester, the club held an all-sports banquet instead of the annual banquet for the football team. In the spring, the club initiated its new members at a mock initiation. The formal initiation followed at a picnic held later that evening.

The Club's most important function is to develop good sportsmanship, better personalities and ability to get along with others. The girls acquire these abilities by participating in intra-mural sports.

Grand finale of Disneyland

The biggest project of the year for the Girls' Swimming Club was the presentation of their water ballet, Disneyland. In this show, many of Walt Disney's Fantasy Land characters were portrayed.

Besides working on stunts and on their own show, some members attended the water ballets presented by other schools.

This year the club was headed by Mary Jane Nissly with the able assistance of Miss Mary Irene Bell.

As in previous years, in June, the members of the club went to the Nissly's cottage for the initiation of new members, and for a rest from all of their other activities.

Roosevelt found his music in the notes of the American birds. Each bird had its own particular charm for Roosevelt and each with its song, was a vivid part of his life.

Roosevelt opened the 1956 season with a 12-6 win over the Clinton Redskins. They went on to win two more games and place 6th in the Huron League.

Although 14 lettermen are lost, due to graduation, next year's squad looks promising.

Credit should also be given to 16 freshmen who reported for practice everyday and worked feverishly at the task of becoming football players.

The Rough Riders, blessed with good balance, played well throughout the season and captured a first place tie with Dundee. This marks only the second time in the school's history that a Roosevelt quintet has won the Huron League Championship.

The 15-2 seasonal record was highlighted with some spectacular play and lopsided wins on the part of the Rooseveltians. The team, coached by Art Walker compiled 960 points as compared to 658 points for the opponents.

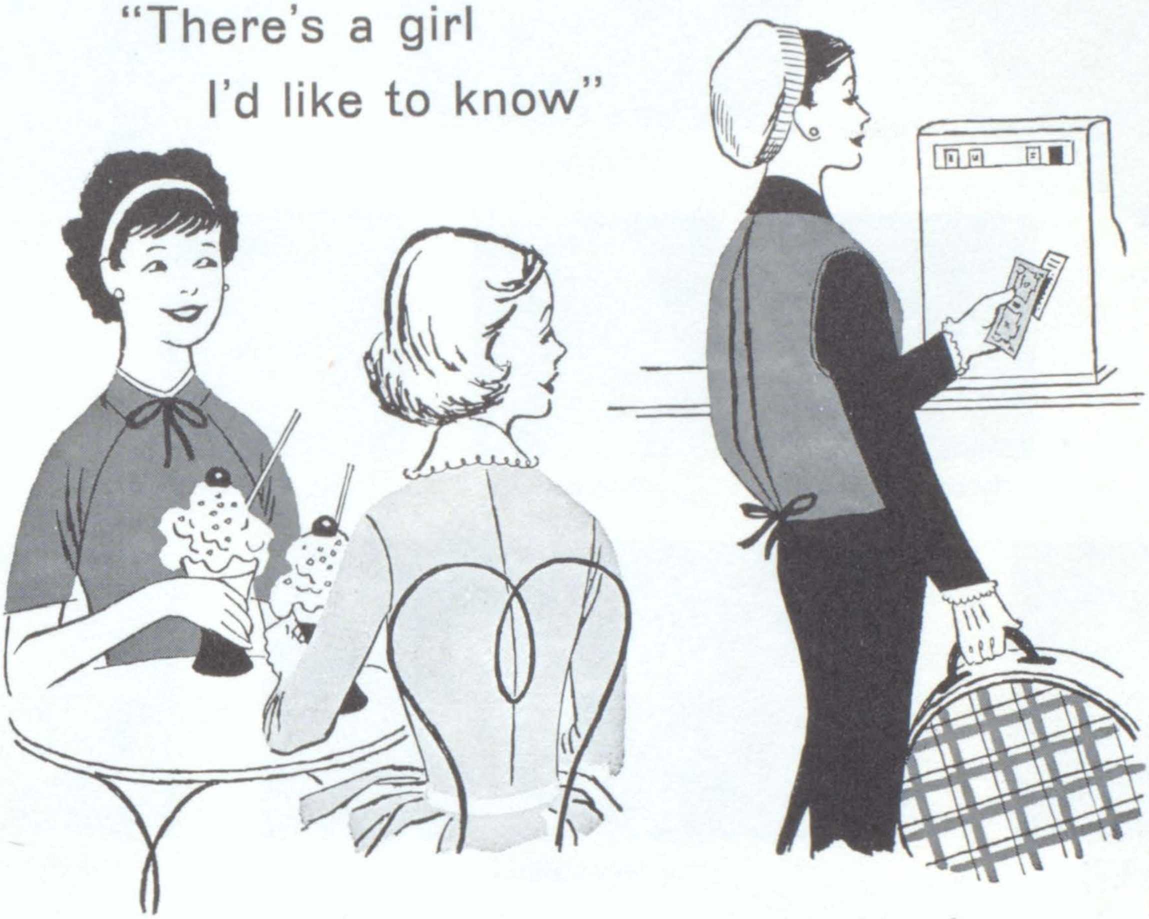
"There's a girl
I'd like to know"



"She has so much poise and confidence—I'll bet she works for the telephone company. Those girls are so attractive and have such friendly, pleasant manners."

They're talking about Lucy, who started working for Michigan Bell right out of high school. She was trained with other beginners by friendly, understanding supervisors. Today she's proud of her work; enjoys a fine salary, regular wage increases, and many new friends.

Lucy was delighted from the very first by the clean, pleasant surroundings, by the regularly scheduled midmorning and midafternoon "breaks" for relaxing in the company's comfortable lounge rooms, and by the opportunities for advancement.

Isn't that the kind of job you want? Then why not get in touch with us now? We'll be happy to tell you more about the variety of interesting jobs from which you can choose after graduation.
